Workshop on Faith & Finances - Nov. 5, 19

Missed the 1st class? You can still sign up...

Attorney and financial advisor Bill Greenhalgh is leading a three session class on faith and personal finances. This class provides an innovative and moving synthesis of timeless Biblical teachings with contemporary financial strategies, which will make you a happier and more productive person. In this fascinating three-part series, you will discover how to find your true security in God by breaking through modern society's obsession with material wealth and possessions. In addition, you'll learn the basic tenets of effective personal wealth management. Class members will learn it's possible to achieve all the personal contentment your heart desires while freeing up extra resources to enable you to make a real difference in your church and community. Classes are held from 9:15-10:15am.

Warming Shelter – opens November 1 – meals needed

The Warming Shelter is opening November 1 and will be open through April 2018. We are once again committed to providing meals on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of the months. If you are interested in providing a component of the meal the menus are in the Singer Fellowship Hall with a signup sheet. There is also an informational sheet with the menus. Your contributions are invited and welcome. They may be brought to church the Sunday before the Monday we are serving or the day of by 5 p.m. and I will deliver them to the Shelter. Please mark Warming Shelter on them and leave them in the kitchen. If you have menu ideas your input is welcome. If you want to be on the email list to get a “heads up” on the menus, please contact Judy Ellington.
